AISER'S BIRTHDAY A DAY OF LOSSES TO HIM--RUSSIA TO TEST egal Status of Bomb Droppers--Great Battle Developing In Carpathians-low To German Navy Worse Than Was Reported--Severe Land Fighting

REAT BATTLE IS RAGING ALONG THE CARPATHIANS

truggle Along 100-Mile Front In Galicia to Save Hungary.

ermans Lose Heavily In the Fighting Along the Bzura.

A great battle has developed in Galicia, along a 100-mile frontning the Curpathians. This struggle, which is in pursuance of a set autro-German plan of shifting the weight of attack from surir leads to the south, may mark a turning point in the camiry in the east, and both the Russians and Teutons attach the plan imperiance to the outcome. The Autro-German armies, if mental, would effectually cripple Russia's drive at northern inger. Thus for there are no indications are to the result of the iding in this battle, which probably is still in its preliminary sp. As official statement from Petrograd says merely that the sits is developing on large scale.

To be entward, in Bukowina, there is in progress flighting wit is sober phase of the Austro-German movement to drive the Busins to their own territory. Apparently the Busins reported Bukowina has been halted. The Busina report states a wilary engagements are in progress, but gives no informaas to the outcome.

Reasains the struggle continues in the north, along the Warfront. Repeated German attacks were made, and at one point, the Burs, the attackers broke through to the Russian trenches. Is Russian statement says that later they were expelled at the int of the bayout.

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, Jan. 28.—The Carpathian passes in western Galicia; Egypt and the Caucasus, by reason of the sudden offensive of armies heretofore defeated, are again to the fore to-day as the chief areas of interest in the military operations.

In the Carpathians a big force of Austro-Germann has been conneutrated, and is fighting, not only to stem the invasion of Hungary, sai, if possible, to cut off the Russian forces occupying Bukowina to the south; in Egypt the Turkish advance appears really to have segun, and in the Gancauss the shattered Turks have more or less re-organised and paused in their flight toward their own frontier, and resumed the offensive.

Both Vienna and Petrograd emphasize the importance of the Austrian operations in the Carpathians. The Austrians claim the recapture of certain mountain passes, and Petrograd concedes that the Austrians have thrown fresh men into this region, and are evine

While it is not probable that any considerable body of Turks have penetrated the Sinal peninsula, their advance scouts are virtually at the edge of the Suzz Gazaf, having moved along the canvan route near the Mediterranean.
